The Lion Hunt The Lion Hunt is an episode of the British sitcom, Dinnerladies. The episode aired on 14 January 2008. The episode sees all the girls at work go on a mysterious prank call to the women's toilets at the Debenhams department store in Holborn, London. Synopsis The episode opens with Clare showing April and her friend Caroline a video of The Lion Hunt that she had seen on her laptop. The girls decide to go out for a drink after work, but are advised to wait for the group to get back so they can go out with them. While waiting, April is feeling rather jumpy due to her unsuccessful attempt at following the girls the previous day, and feels grateful that the toilet is now locked from the inside. While in the toilet, April is troubled by flashing lights from the shop across the road, but the lights are soon revealed to be one of the girls taking a photo of herself. Although the girls are supposed to be going on a 'spree' for the day, they seem less forthcoming with their motives as the day progresses. A little while later, when the girls are actually going out, most of them manage to avoid April and Caroline, except for Sophie, who is the sister of Pauline. Sophie manages to pull the other two along with her to a security guard's van, where they are subjected to a number of pranks, including drinking a urine sample, having their tongues poked with a corkscrew, and having a urine-soaked snake rubbed against their faces. The girls are eventually discovered by a store assistant, who sends them back to the ladies' toilet, and April is the last to discover them. The episode then shifts focus to April, who is looking through her day planner trying to figure out what she will be doing on her week off. As she lays out her plans, she notices Pauline and Sophie's phone number scribbled in her calendar. She then calls them, asking them if she can come along with them on the prank, which she does not expect them to agree to. Nevertheless, the trio arrive at the women's toilets. They find that there is no need to go through the store from the ladies' toilet, as it is known to be manned by women, and it will therefore be easy to enter. However, once in the ladies' toilet, they find a locked door on the inside of the toilet cubicle. April opens the door and finds a group of four women,
